

Natur<sub>2</sub>

The background of the entire image is a close-up photograph of a large cluster of Dahlias. The flowers are densely packed, creating a rich tapestry of colors ranging from deep red to bright pink. Some flowers are fully bloomed, while others are still tight buds. The green stems and leaves provide a contrasting base for the colorful petals.

Upgraded
Pinkers

February